

I support RM-10352. Having operated 160 meters for many years I think maintaining a division of AM/SSB modes would benefit and encourage the use of the narrow (digital) modes now and into the future and these modes should be encouraged.